

Exercise #4 Challenged Materials

In this exercise you will practice responding to challenged materials.

Using the scenario provided, answer the questions based on the challenged material.

1. What is the specific concern? Is it the content, pictures, theme, or message in general?

2. What age group is the material intended for? Could this be considered for another area?

3. How did the patron learn about the material? Did they read the item in question?

4. What comments in the reviews help you in the decision process?

5. Could this material be owned by other libraries?

6. How would you respond to this challenge?
