Exercise #8

Communicating Your Decision

Directions: It's important to communicate both your decision the reasoning behind it. Working on your own, based just on the information you were given and the thinking you were able to do today:

Decide on an option to pursue for Case Study #2 (Reference):

Then complete the following script:

1. The problem we are trying to solve is…

2. It came to our attention because…

3. We looked into the problem and discovered that…

4. After considering several options, we decided to…

5. The main reason we chose that option was…

6. We expect that the course of action we're proposing will result in…

Extra credit: What other point(s) might strengthen your communication about your decision?