

Exercise #4B

Patron Question 1. You are an undergraduate student working on a paper for your English class. You don't really know what topic you want to work on, but you are somewhat interested in ethics in government. The one thing that you do know is that you need three references from academic journals to support your arguments. You come to the librarian and ask:

“Where are the academic journals?”

Patron Question 2. You are an English professor who suspects that a student has plagiarized a paper and want to find the original source. You suspect that it came out of a professional journal in political science. The paper was on the topic “ethics in government.” You come to the librarian and ask:

“Where are the academic journals?”
